

ONE HUNDRED AND ONE PARK AVENUE

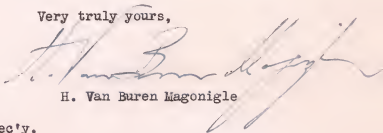

August 11, 1925

My dear Mr. Irvine:-

I was not aware of the rule of your Association as to length of working residence in Lyme, and the circumstance that on two previous occasions my work had been accepted and hung misled me into submitting again this year.

Will you please convey to the Association at its very next meeting my regret and apologies for an act of intrusion which, I assure you, is not customary with me, but purely the result of misapprehension.

Very truly yours,
